Congo (Brazzaville) - Congo (Kinshasa): Army strong-man Ngouabi, apparently still in working alliance with civilian leftists, continues to consolidate his power in Brazzaville. He asserts there will be no major changes in Brazzaville's policy of maintaining close relations both with France and with Communist countries. A military operation against Brazzaville leftists by troops from neighboring Congo (Kinshasa) thus far has failed to materialize. Ngouabi has failed to call for Kinshasa military support, and Kinshasa officials have been reluctant to go beyond the contingency planning stage in the absence of President Mobutu. 25X1
